INVESTIGATIONS

Investigation Spotlight

Detective Chmielewski, along with Officers Spears and Hayes, presented the breakout session “Evolution of Officer Involved Shootings from a Police Officer’s Perspective” at the 2023 Woman’s Law Enforcement Conference. Extra chairs had to be brought into the session to accommodate attendees and they received very positive feedback on the presentation.

Oswego Evidence Technicians attended a CSI Conference at the NIU campus in Naperville. The breakout sessions covered 3D scanning of blood spatter in crime scenes, calculating trajectory of bullets in shooting scenes, and responding to officer involved shootings.

Detectives received felony approval for three (3) counts of Class 4 Felony Disorderly Conduct after a juvenile subject provided false information in two separate police reports. The initial report alleged the juvenile was assaulted, and the second report claimed the suspect in the assault had violated an Order of Protection the juvenile had obtained against the alleged offender. Both of the original reports are being closed as unfounded.

The offender in a criminal sexual assault was indicted on three (3) counts of Predatory Criminal Sexual Assault of a Child and six (6) counts of Aggravated Criminal Sexual Abuse.
